(By Associated Negro Press.)

Chicago, Sept. 1.—"It is finished." The women of America are fifty-fifty with the men; they are now full fledged citizens, with all the rights and privileges of the so-called sterner sex, and they will vote for the next President of the United States. The Tennessee legislature put on the finishing touches. Governor Roberts understood and underscored the decree, and Secretary of State Coby gave the final official announcement to the world.

There is much rejoicing, bell ringing and excitement of various kinds, but the dear old South has to go through an ordeal of elimination unlike anything it has ever before passed through. If the South gets away with disfranchising openly, and with malice aforethought, all the Negro women of the section, it will be the most monumental act of legal indifference and defiance ever perpetrated in this country.

Strong indications point to the fact, however, that the women are not going to be as docile and as easy as the men in seeing that the rightful constituents get the right privilege of casting their ballots and having them honestly counted. The women are more conscientious than men, and whether Republican or Democrat, they have high regard for the letter of the law. Therefore, there will be some interesting political developments.

"THE NEGRO WOMEN OF THE UNITED STATES AND THE NEGRO MEN OF THE UNITED STATES ARE ENTITLED TO VOTE NOW AND EVERYWHERE AND FOREVER. ARE THE DEMOCRATS BOLD ENOUGH TO DENY THEM AND ARE THE REPUBLICANS COWARDS ENOUGH TO PERMIT THE GRAND LARCENY?" asks one of the most prominent Republicans in the country.

Jeff's closed Monday, all day.

JOHNSON TO SPEAK.

(By Associated Negro Press.) Ever since the expose of disfranchisement methods in the South, and particularly in Georgia, by Col. Henry Lincoln Johnson, before the Senate investigation committee, threats of many kinds, insinuations and innuendoes have been made against the well being and life of the Colonel. A representative of the Associated Negro Press took the matter up with him and sought to learn his feelings on the subject.

He said, "Do you wish a news story? Well, you can tell the world that I am going to deliver an address on the Campus of Morris Brown College, Atlanta, before the greatest throng of people ever assembled in Georgia. I am going to tell them the truth as I see it, and I will not be afraid. I am going to send an invitation to every newspaper in Georgia, including the dailies, and I am going to invite the and all persons who have had anything to say about conditions in the members of the Georgia Legislature, South. I want them to be present and hear me."

The date for this event has not been announced. However, direct information from Atlanta, Col. Johnson's home, is to the effect that the people of that city are all ready to honor their advocate and leader. They have raised a large fund for the proper entertainment, and when Col. Johnson arrives from the North, his feet will not be permitted to touch the ground, but he will be carried to waiting automobiles on the shoulders of admirers. Excursions will be run to Atlanta from all over the state.

It is learned on very excellent authority that there are large numbers of right thinking white people who agree with Col. Johnson and agree that he is right, and that he should be backed up in his efforts to stop the crime of lynching and to open the door of the voting booth to the people of his race.

Mr. Jack Broomfield, Omaha, Nebraska's most prominent colored citizen, was a pleasant caller at The Sun office, in company with Mr. Than Travis of St. Paul, Minn. Mr. Broomfield is enthusiastic concerning the possibilities of the race in Gary, Ind., and gives indisputable facts and figures as to why the thoughtful Negro should take advantage of his opportunities and invest in what he believes and what he has thoroughly convinced the Editor to be the greatest city in America industrially.

Mr. Broomfield has invested in Gary holdings as well as his manager and personal friend, Mr. W. H. Robinson, who has charge of the sales in the Nebraska territory. Doubtless many influential Negroes through his recommendation will look over the conditions in Gary in the near future with the intention of locating or becoming purchasers.

Mr. and Mrs. Winston Williams, 1622 Howard avenue, are the proud parents of a baby girl who made her arrival Saturday, August 28.

Mrs. Bertha Lewis of 2223 Vine street died Thursday, August 19, in Kansas.

THEY SAY

—That it's time to put in your coat. Hear me?

—That it's much easier to start a rumor than it is to head it off. Be careful what you say.

—That if you want to see our government go on the rocks just go to the ballot box and vote for Cox.

—That as the wheels of time revolve he who is on the bottom today may be on the top tomorrow.

—That the man or woman who is in love will not take advice. Try 'em and see.

—That a certain preacher who likes his hickie came within an inch of being caught in a buffet flat last week. Be keeful parson, be keeful.

—That there are more widows in this old town looking for men—to marry than any town of like size in America. Who'd-a-thunk it?

—That the girl who is unused to receiving letters when she gets one can always be seen reading it on the street or the cars.

—That the head of the family who does not belong to some church is making a serious mistake in setting a fitting example for their children. Amen.

—That the barber shops in Kansas City charge higher prices than any of those in Chicago, Philadelphia or New York. What am de reason, Mr. Barbah?

—That one sweet thing said to her girl friend that she shimmied so good during Elks week that she's still got the shakes. Well, she'll get over them this winter when the weather gets down to zero.

—That the neighbors of a certain swell dame thought an explosion had taken place in her home the other evening, so hard did she fall after close contact with her husband's fist. When the neighbors rushed over to see what the damage was, she sweetly said: "Oh hubby and I were just playing and I lost my foothold and fell."
